

CONTENTS.

| | Page | | Page |
|---|------|--|------|
| CHAPTER XXXIII. | | Defeat of the Valencians at Uldecona | 24 |
| MARSHAL Macdonald succeeds Augereau in Catalonia | 1 | Captain Fane taken at Palamos | 25 |
| Siege of Mequinenza | 2 | Trenches opened before Tortosa | 26 |
| Mequinenza taken | 4 | O'Donell's plan for relieving it | 27 |
| Lili appointed to the command in Tortosa | ib. | Tortosa surrendered | 28 |
| Tortosa | ib. | Sentence on the governor for surrendering it | ib. |
| Preparations for the siege of that city | 6 | Col de Balaguer surrendered | 29 |
| The enemy appear before it | 7 | Commodore Mends destroys the batteries on the north coast of Spain | 30 |
| O'Donell visits the city | 8 | Expedition under Renovales to Santona | 31 |
| Macdonald enters the plain of Tarragona | 9 | Wreck of the Spanish vessels | 33 |
| Affair near Tarragona | ib. | Expedition under Lord Blayney | 34 |
| Macdonald retires | ib. | Mountains of Ronda | ib. |
| O'Donell surprizes the enemy at La Bisbal | ib. | Ortiz de Zarate | ib. |
| The enemy's batteries on the coast destroyed | 14 | Lord Blayney sails from Gibraltar | 36 |
| Captured provisions purchased for the French in Barcelona | 15 | He lands near the castle of Frange-rola | ib. |
| Lili's preparations for defence | ib. | Failure of the expedition | 38 |
| Ferdinand's birthday celebrated in Tortosa | 17 | Lord Blayney and the British troops taken | 39 |
| Conduct of the French general concerning Marshal Soult's decree | ib. | Defeat of General Blake | 40 |
| Successes of Eroles | 19 | Guerrillas | 41 |
| Edict against the Junta of Aragon | 22 | Andalusia | 46 |
| Bassecourt takes the command in Valencia | 23 | Mountains of Ronda | ib. |
| | | Extremadura | 49 |
| | | D. Toribio Bustamente | ib. |
| | | D. Francisco Abad, el Chaleco | 50 |
| | | Ciria, the Nero of La Mancha | 51 |
| | | New Castille | 52 |

| | Page | | Page |
|---|------|--|------|
| D. Ventura Ximenez | 52 | Marquis of Palacio refuses to take the | |
| Guerrilla banditti | ib. | oath | 89 |
| Crimes of Pedrazuela and his wife | 53 | Tyrannical conduct of the Cortes | |
| Alcalde of Brihuega | 54 | towards him | 90 |
| Joseph's escape from the Empecinado | 55 | Self-denying ordinance | 91 |
| Desertion of the Juramentados | 56 | Liberty of the press | 92 |
| Junta of Guadalaxara | ib. | State of the press | 96 |
| The Medico | 57 | El Robespierre Español | 97 |
| Fourscore French burnt in a chapel | ib. | Debates concerning Ferdinand | 98 |
| Cruelties and retaliations | ib. | Decree concerning him | 100 |
| Old Castille | 58 | Character of the Cortes | 101 |
| The Cura | 59 | | |
| Aragon | 60 | CHAPTER XXXV. | |
| The Canterero | ib. | Expectations of the French | 104 |
| Alcalde of Mondragon | 61 | Gardanne enters Portugal, and | |
| Asturias | 62 | marches back again | 105 |
| Porlier | ib. | Drouet enters with 10,000 men | 106 |
| D. José Duran | ib. | Rash operations of Silveira | 108 |
| Xavier Mina | 63 | Conduct of Drouet's corps | ib. |
| His capture | 64 | The French army left to subsist | |
| Espoz y Mina elected to succeed him | ib. | upon the country | 109 |
| | | Conduct of that army towards the | |
| CHAPTER XXXIV. | | inhabitants | 110 |
| Schemes of the intrusive government | 70 | Skill of the marauders | 113 |
| The Cortes | 71 | Massena perseveres in remaining | |
| Mode of election | 72 | against Ney's advice | 116 |
| Regulations proposed by the Central | | State of the people within the lines | 117 |
| Junta | 77 | False statements in France | 118 |
| The Regency delays the convocation | 78 | Opinions of the opposition in Eng- | |
| Cortes convoked | 80 | land | ib. |
| Commencement of their proceedings | ib. | Schemes of co-operation with Soult | 119 |
| Oath required from the Regents | 83 | Olivença taken by the French | 121 |
| The Bishop of Orense scruples to take | | Badajoz invested | ib. |
| the oath | 84 | Death of Romana | 122 |
| First measures of the Cortes | 86 | Destruction of his army | 124 |
| The Duke of Orleans offers his ser- | | Governor of Badajoz killed | ib. |
| vices | 87 | Imaz appointed to succeed him | 125 |
| Second Regency | 88 | Massena begins his retreat | 127 |

CONTENTS.

v

| | Page | | Page |
|---|------------|--|------|
| Badajoz surrendered | 129 | Communication with the Isle of Leon opened | 166 |
| Skill and barbarity of the French in their retreat | 133 | Heights of Barrosa | 167 |
| Havoc at Alcobaca | 135 | General Graham marches back to the heights | 168 |
| And at Batalha | 137 | Battle of Barrosa | ib. |
| Direction of the enemy's retreat | ib. | Diversion on the coast | 171 |
| Affair before Pombal | 138 | The Cortes demand an inquiry | ib. |
| Before Redinha | ib. | Outcry in England against Lapeña | 172 |
| They appear before Coimbra | 140 | Mr. Ward's speech | ib. |
| Montbrun fears to enter it | ib. | Mr. Perceval | 173 |
| Distress of the enemy | 142 | Mr. Whitbread | ib. |
| Affair on the Ceyra | 144 | Remarks on the failure of the expe- dition | 175 |
| Resistance made by the peasantry Guarda | 146 148 | Death of Alburquerque | 178 |
| The Coa | 149 | His epitaph by Mr. Frere | 180 |
| Sabugal | ib. | | |
| Action before Sabugal | 150 | | |
| The French repossess the frontier | 153 | CHAPTER XXXVII. | |
| Opinions of the Whigs at this time | 154 | Opinions of the opposition writers at this time | 181 |
| Mr. Ponsonby | ib. | Address of the Portugueze govern- ment to the people | 184 |
| Mr. Freemantle | ib. | Lord Wellington asks relief for the suffering Portugueze | 185 |
| General Tarleton | 155 | Parliamentary grant for the relief of the Portugueze | 186 |
| Lord Grenville | ib. | Earl Grosvenor demurs at it | 187 |
| CHAPTER XXXVI. | | Marquis of Lansdowne | ib. |
| Expedition from Cadiz | 157 | Mr. Ponsonby | 188 |
| Lieutenant-General Graham | ib. | Public subscription | ib. |
| Apprehensions of the enemy | 158 | Honourable acknowledgement of this relief by the Prince of Brazil | ib. |
| The troops land at Algeciras | 159 | Distribution of the grant | 189 |
| They pass the Puerto de Facinas | ib. | Children famished at Santarem | ib. |
| Lapeña's proclamation | 160 | State in which the French left the country they had occupied | 190 |
| Advance against Veger | ib. | Pombal | ib. |
| Junction of the troops from St. Roques | 162 | Santarem | 191 |
| The French attack Zayas, and are repulsed | 163 | | |
| Passage of the Lake of Janda | 164 | | |
| Position of the enemy | 165 | | |

| | Page | | Page |
|---|------|---|------|
| Leyria | 191 | Siege of Badajoz resumed | 233 |
| Political effect of this distribution | 193 | Unsuccessful attempts upon Fort | |
| Marshal Beresford goes to Alentejo | 195 | Christoval | 234 |
| Valencia de Alcantara, Alburquerque, and Campo Mayor taken by the French | 196 | The siege raised | 235 |
| Beresford arrives on the frontier | ib. | Junction of Soult and Marmont | 236 |
| Affair near Campo Mayor | 197 | The allies take a position within the Portuguese frontier | ib. |
| Measures concerted with the Spa- niards | 199 | Soult boasts of his success | 237 |
| Bridge constructed at Jurumenha | 200 | Blake's movements | 238 |
| Passage of the Guadiana | 201 | He fails at Niebla and returns to Cadiz | 239 |
| Olivença retaken | 202 | The French armies separate | 240 |
| Claim of the Portuguese to that place | 203 | | |
| The French retire from Extremadura | 205 | CHAPTER XXXVIII. | |
| Siege of Badajoz undertaken | 206 | Plans of the French in Catalonia | 241 |
| Bridge at Jurumenha swept away | 207 | The Pyrenean provinces admini- stered in Buonaparte's name | 242 |
| Lord Wellington recalled to Beira | ib. | State of Aragon | 243 |
| Inactivity of the Spanish commander in Galicia | ib. | System of the French commander | ib. |
| Country between the Agueda and Coa | 208 | Good effect of paying the troops regularly | 245 |
| Massena's address to his army | 209 | British goods burnt at Zaragoza | ib. |
| Battle of Fuentes d'Onoro | 210 | Preparations for besieging Zaragoza | 246 |
| The French retire | 216 | Manresa burnt by Macdonald | 248 |
| Escape of the garrison from Almeida | 217 | Scheme for the recovery of Barce- lona frustrated | 249 |
| Marmont succeeds Massena in the command | 219 | Figueras | 250 |
| Lord Wellington recalled to Alen- tejo | 220 | Attempt upon that place | 251 |
| Badajoz besieged | ib. | It is taken by surprize | 252 |
| Interruption of the siege | 221 | Rovira rewarded with preferment in the church | 254 |
| Arrangement between Lord Wel- lington and Castaños concerning the command | 222 | Suchet refuses to send the troops which Macdonald required from him | 256 |
| Reasons for giving battle | 223 | Eroles introduces troops into Fi- gueras | 257 |
| The allies assemble at Albuhera | ib. | The French blockade it | ib. |
| Battle of Albuhera | 225 | Attempts to destroy Mina | 259 |

CONTENTS.

vii

| | Page | | Page |
|---|------|--------------------------------------|------|
| Tarragona | 277 | Corregidor of Cervera taken and | |
| Siege of that city | 281 | punished | 308 |
| Campoverde enters it after a defeat | ib. | Eroles enters France and levies con- | |
| Fort Olivo betrayed | 282 | tributions | 309 |
| Contreras appointed to command in | | | |
| the city | 283 | | |
| Campoverde goes out to act in the | | | |
| field | 284 | | |
| Fort Francoli abandoned | 285 | | |
| Troops sent to reinforce the garrison, | | | |
| and landed elsewhere | 286 | | |
| The lower town taken | 287 | | |
| Suchet's threat | ib. | | |
| The mole at Tarragona | ib. | | |
| Campoverde's inactivity | 289 | | |
| Ill-behaviour of the Spanish frigates | 290 | | |
| Colonel Skerret arrives with British | | | |
| troops from Cadiz | ib. | | |
| Tarragona taken by assault | 291 | | |
| Massacre there | 293 | | |
| Campoverde resolves to abandon | | | |
| Catalonia | 295 | | |
| Eroles refuses to leave it | 296 | | |
| General Lacy arrives to take the | | | |
| command | ib. | | |
| Montserrat taken by the French | 297 | | |
| Fall of Figueras | 298 | | |
| Base usage of the prisoners taken | | | |
| there | ib. | | |
| Manso | 299 | | |
| Conduct of the Junta of Catalonia | 301 | | |
| Lacy's proclamation | ib. | | |
| Retreat of the cavalry from Cata- | | | |
| lonia to Murcia | 302 | | |
| State of the enemy in Catalonia | 304 | | |
| Las Medas recovered by the Spa- | | | |
| niards | 305 | | |
| Successful enterprizes of Lacy and | | | |
| Eroles | 307 | | |
| CHAPTER XXXIX. | | | |
| State of Portugal | | | 311 |
| Expectation of peace | | | 312 |
| Disposition of the continental powers | | | |
| to resist Buonaparte | | | 313 |
| Plans of Soult and Marmont | | | 314 |
| Dorsenne enters Galicia | | | ib. |
| Abadia retreats | | | 315 |
| Lord Wellington observes Ciudad | | | |
| Rodrigo | | | 316 |
| Dorsenne recalled from Galicia | | | ib. |
| Movements of the French to throw | | | |
| supplies into Ciudad Rodrigo | | | 317 |
| The allies fall back | | | 318 |
| The French retire | | | 322 |
| Marmont boasts of his success | | | ib. |
| Girard in Extremadura | | | 323 |
| General Hill moves against him | | | ib. |
| Arroyo Molinos | | | 324 |
| The French surprized and routed | | | |
| there | | | 325 |
| Marques del Palacio appointed to | | | |
| the command in Valencia | | | 328 |
| His proclamation | | | ib. |
| He is superseded by Blake | | | 330 |
| Murviedro | | | 332 |
| Suchet takes possession of the town | | | 333 |
| The French repulsed in an assault | | | 334 |
| Oropesa taken by the enemy | | | 335 |
| A second assault repelled | | | 336 |
| Guerrilla movements in aid of Mur- | | | |
| viedro | | | ib. |

| | Page | | Page |
|--|------|---|------|
| Dispersion of the Empecinado's troops | 337 | Tarifa attempted by the French | 366 |
| His subsequent successes in conjunction with Duran | ib. | Tarifa | 368 |
| A price set upon the heads of Mina and his officers | 338 | Tarifa garrisoned by the English | 369 |
| Mina's success at Ayerbe | 340 | Colonel Skerret and Copons arrive there | 370 |
| Cruchaga carries off the enemy's stores from Tafalla | 341 | The French invest the town | ib. |
| Mina's object in soliciting for military rank | 342 | Doubts whether it could be defended | 371 |
| His decree for reprisals | 343 | The garrison summoned | 374 |
| Duran and the Empecinado separate | 345 | The French repulsed in an assault | ib. |
| Battle of Murviedro | 346 | Effect of a storm on both parties | 376 |
| Murviedro surrendered | 349 | Siege raised | 377 |
| Valencia | 351 | General Hill occupies Merida | 378 |
| Suchet summons the city | 353 | Attempt to carry off Soult | ib. |
| He establishes himself in the suburb and in the port | ib. | Colonel Grant rescued by the Guerrillas | 379 |
| The army endeavours to escape | 356 | State of feeling at Madrid | ib. |
| Blake abandons the lines and retires into the city | 357 | State of the country | 381 |
| The city a second time summoned | ib. | The Intruder goes to France | 383 |
| Suchet expects a desperate resistance | 358 | Distress both of the Intrusive and Legitimate Governments | 384 |
| He bombards the city | 359 | Schemes for strengthening the Spanish government | 386 |
| Blake surrenders the city and the troops | 360 | Cardinal Bourbon | ib. |
| CHAPTER XL. | | | |
| Attempt on Alicante | 362 | The Infante Don Carlos | ib. |
| Denia surrendered | 363 | Princess of Brazil | 387 |
| Peniscola betrayed by Garcia Navarro | ib. | State of the Portuguese government | 388 |
| Carrera killed in Murcia | ib. | Marquis Wellesley's views | 390 |
| New constitution | 364 | Lord Wellington prepares for the siege of Ciudad Rodrigo | 392 |
| Change of Regency | ib. | Ciudad Rodrigo | 394 |
| Ballasteros retreats to the lines of St. Roque | 365 | A redoubt carried | 396 |
| | | Convent of Santa Cruz taken | 397 |
| | | Captain Ross killed | ib. |
| | | St. Francisco's and the suburbs taken | 398 |
| | | The place taken by assault | 400 |
| | | Craufurd mortally wounded | 401 |
| | | Mackinnon killed | 402 |
| | | General Craufurd | 403 |
| | | General Mackinnon | 404 |

CONTENTS.

ix

| | Page | | Page |
|---|------|--|------|
| Marmont's movements during the siege | 405 | Overtures from the ministers to Marquis Wellesley and Mr. Canning | 445 |
| Lord Wellington made Duque de Ciudad Rodrigo | 407 | Marquis Wellesley's reasons for declining them | 446 |
| Speeches of Sir F. Burdett and Mr. Whitbread | ib. | Mr. Canning's | 448 |
| Lord Wellington created an Earl | 408 | Marquis Wellesley's statement | 449 |
| Preparations for the siege of Badajoz | ib. | Mr. Stuart Wortley's motion | ib. |
| Siege and capture of that city | 410 | Marquis Wellesley charged to form an administration | 450 |
| Soult advances to relieve the place, and retreats | 426 | The ministers refuse to act with him | ib. |
| Marmont enters Beira | 427 | Lords Grey and Grenville also decline | ib. |
| Arrangements for the defence of that frontier | ib. | Marquis Wellesley receives fuller powers | 452 |
| Marmont deterred by a feint from assaulting Almeida | 428 | The two lords persist in their reply | ib. |
| Advance of the French to Castello Branco, and their retreat | 429 | Earl Moira's letter to Earl Grey | 454 |
| Marmont attempts to surprize the Portugueze at Guarda | 430 | Marquis Wellesley resigns his commission | 456 |
| Flight of the Portugueze militia by the Mondego | 431 | Negotiation with Earl Moira | ib. |
| Marmont retreats | 432 | The old ministry is re-established | 459 |
| Lord Wellington returns to Beira | 433 | Marquis Wellesley's explanation | ib. |
| | | Earl Grey's | 461 |
| | | Earl Moira's reply | ib. |
| | | Mr. Stuart Wortley's second motion | 462 |
| | | Lord Yarmouth's statement | 463 |
| | | Lord Castlereagh's speech | 464 |
| | | Pecuniary assistance to the Spaniards | 467 |
| | | Proposal concerning Spanish troops | 468 |
| | | Plan of a diversion from Sicily | 469 |
| | | Duran enters Soria | ib. |
| | | Members of the Junta of Burgos seized by the French and put to death | 470 |
| | | Circumstances of the execution | 471 |
| | | Treatment of their bodies | 473 |
| | | Retaliatory executions | ib. |
| | | El Manco | 474 |
| | | Mutual retaliations | 475 |
| | | Guerrilla exploits | 476 |

CHAPTER XLI.

| | |
|---|-----|
| Marquis Wellesley resigns office | 434 |
| Restrictions on the Regency expire | ib. |
| Communication from the Prince Regent to the leaders of opposition | 435 |
| Reply of Lords Grey and Grenville | 436 |
| Lord Boringdon's motion | 437 |
| Speech of Earl Grey | ib. |
| Overtures from the French government | 439 |
| Lord Castlereagh's reply | 441 |
| Mr. Perceval murdered | 443 |
| Conduct of the populace | 444 |

| | Page | | Page |
|--|------|--|------|
| Intercepted letters from the Intruder | 477 | Measures of police at Madrid | 524 |
| Sir Rowland Hill's expedition against the bridge of Almaraz | 479 | Lord Wellington's situation | 526 |
| Ballasteros defeated at Bornos | 483 | Anglo-Sicilian army | 528 |
| Lord Wellington advances into Spain | ib. | Majorcan division | ib. |
| Salamanca | 484 | The expedition arrives on the coast of Catalonia | 530 |
| The Tormes | 485 | Defeat of the Spaniards at Castalla | ib. |
| The allies enter Salamanca | ib. | The expedition lands at Alicante | 530 |
| Siege of the forts there | 486 | The French fall back to the Xucar | 532 |
| Marmont moves to relieve them | 488 | They withdraw from Santander | ib. |
| Surrender of the forts | 491 | And are driven from Bilbao | ib. |
| Marmont falls back upon the Douro | 492 | State of the Galician army | 533 |
| Lord Wellington advances to that river | 493 | The French break up the siege of Cadiz | ib. |
| The Douro | 494 | Movement of General La Cruz Mour- geon and Colonel Skerrett upon Seville | 534 |
| Marmont reinforced by General Bon- net | 495 | Brigadier-General Downie | ib. |
| Lord Wellington retires before him | 496 | The French driven from Seville | 536 |
| Battle of Salamanca | 499 | Rejoicing in that city | 538 |
| Proceedings of Sir Home Popham on the coast of Biscay | 508 | Honours rendered to Lord Welling- ton | 539 |
| CHAPTER XLII. | | | |
| Appeal of the Intruder to the Spa- niards | 513 | St. Teresa appointed co-patroness of Spain | ib. |
| State of Madrid | 514 | Lord Wellington commander-in-chief of the Spanish armies | 542 |
| Measures of the Intruder before the battle of Salamanca | 515 | His situation at Madrid | ib. |
| Advance of the allies | 516 | He moves toward Burgos | 544 |
| Affair at Majalahonda | 517 | The French withdraw from Valla- dolid | ib. |
| The enemy retire from Madrid | ib. | The allies advance to Burgos | 545 |
| The allies enter | 518 | Burgos | 546 |
| The new constitution proclaimed there | ib. | The allies enter Burgos | 550 |
| The Buen Retiro | 519 | Castle of Burgos | 551 |
| Surrender of the Retiro | 521 | The horn-work on St. Miguel's taken | 552 |
| The constitution sworn to | 522 | Failure in assaulting the first line | 554 |
| General Foy's movement | 523 | A second assault fails | 555 |
| | | A third by daylight proves successful | ib. |
| | | Major Cocks | 557 |

CONTENTS.

xi

| | Page | CHAPTER XLIII. | Page |
|--|------|--|------|
| The second line assaulted with ill success | 559 | Opinions of the opposition | 585 |
| Movement of the French in the North | ib. | Marquis Wellesley calls for inquiry | ib. |
| Ballasteros refuses to act under the British commander | 560 | Lord Grenville | 587 |
| He is exiled to Ceuta | 561 | Mr. Ponsonby | 588 |
| General Maitland gives up the command of the Anglo-Sicilian army | 562 | Mr. Freemantle | ib. |
| Unsuccessful attempt upon Denia | 563 | Mr. Whitbread | 589 |
| The French prepare to march from the South against Lord Wellington | ib. | Motion of thanks to the armies | ib. |
| Castle of Chinchilla taken by them | ib. | Sir F. Burdett | ib. |
| They begin their march | 564 | Marquis Wellesley moves for a committee | 592 |
| Lord Wellington raises the siege of Burgos | ib. | Earl Grey | 593 |
| Retreat from Burgos | 565 | Earl of Liverpool | 594 |
| Disorder during the retreat | 566 | Earl Bathurst | 595 |
| The allies halt | 568 | Lord Holland | 596 |
| Sir Rowland Hill retreats from the Xarama | 570 | Lord Wellington goes to Cadiz | ib. |
| State of Madrid | ib. | Arrangements concerning the Spanish armies | 597 |
| The allies withdraw from Madrid | 571 | Lord Wellington goes to Lisbon | ib. |
| The French enter | ib. | Relaxed discipline of the Portuguese army | 598 |
| Junction of the retreating armies | 573 | Buonaparte withdraws troops from Spain | 600 |
| Junction of the French armies | ib. | Exactions of the French | ib. |
| Lord Wellington retreats to Salamanca | 574 | Longa's movements in the North | 601 |
| And from thence to the Agueda | 575 | Mina's movements | 602 |
| Sufferings of the army | 576 | Caffarelli recalled from Spain | 603 |
| Sir Edward Paget made prisoner | 577 | Clausel endeavours to hunt Mina down | ib. |
| Lord Wellington reaches Ciudad Rodrigo | 578 | Renovales made prisoner | 605 |
| The French retire to the Tormes | 579 | Castro de Urdiales taken by General Foy | ib. |
| Castle of Alba de Tormes evacuated | ib. | Enormities committed there by the French | 606 |
| Lord Wellington's circular letter to the commanding officers of battalions | 580 | Marshal Soult called from Spain | 607 |
| | | The Intruder goes to Valladolid | ib. |
| | | Anglo-Sicilian army | 608 |
| | | Sir John Murray takes the command | ib. |

| | Page | | Page |
|---|------|--|------|
| Defeat of Elio's corps | 609 | Sir John relands the troops | 649 |
| Suchet marches against the Anglo-Sicilian army | ib. | Lord W. Bentinck takes the command | 650 |
| Battle of Castalla | 611 | Fort at Col de Balaguer demolished | ib. |
| Lord Wellington opens the campaign | 614 | Unsuccessful movements of the Spaniards in Valencia | ib. |
| The left of his army crosses the Douro | 615 | The expedition returns to Alicante | 651 |
| Affair near Salamanca | 616 | Suchet's measures after the battle of Vittoria | ib. |
| Passage of the Ezla | 618 | Lord Wellington undertakes the siege of S. Sebastian's | 652 |
| Sir Rowland Hill crosses the Douro | 621 | Clausel retreats into France by way of Jaca | 653 |
| The French abandon Burgos | 622 | Duran invites Mina to act with him for the deliverance of Zaragoza | ib. |
| The Ebro | 623 | Affair before Zaragoza | 655 |
| Passage of the Ebro | 624 | Second sally of the French | 656 |
| The French fall back upon Vittoria | 625 | Duran arrives before the city | 657 |
| Vittoria | 626 | The French withdraw from the city, leaving a garrison | ib. |
| Battle of Vittoria | 627 | Suchet draws off the remaining garrisons in Aragon | 660 |
| Sir T. Graham proceeds against General Foy | 636 | Duran enters Zaragoza | 661 |
| The French driven from Tolosa | 637 | Mina takes the command | 662 |
| Foy retreats into France | 638 | The Aljaferia surrendered | 663 |
| Passages is surrendered | 639 | Conduct of the Zaragozans during their captivity | ib. |
| Castro abandoned by the enemy | ib. | S. Sebastian's | 666 |
| Pancorbo taken | ib. | Distribution of the allied army | 667 |
| Clausel retires to Zaragoza | ib. | Siege of S. Sebastian's | 669 |
| Preparations for the siege of Pamplona | 640 | Convent of S. Bartolomé taken | 670 |
| CHAPTER XLIV. | | | |
| Expedition from Alicante | 641 | The batteries open | 672 |
| Col de Balaguer taken by the Anglo-Sicilian army | 642 | Unsuccessful assault | ib. |
| The expedition lands near Tarragona | 643 | The siege suspended | 676 |
| Suchet's movements for the relief of that place | 644 | Soult appointed Commander-in-chief | ib. |
| Sir John Murray raises the siege | 646 | His address to the troops | 677 |
| Suchet approaches Col de Balaguer and retires again | 648 | Critical situation of the allied army | 679 |
| | | Soult's movements for the relief of Pamplona | ib. |