This is a detailed historical map of Madrid, Spain, from the early 20th century. The map is framed by a grid with columns labeled D, E, F, G, and H at the top. A red box in the upper right corner contains the text "AYU SECCION". The map shows a dense network of streets and buildings, with various areas color-coded in shades of purple, blue, red, orange, and green. Key landmarks and features include the "PROYECTO DE PROLONGACION DEL CASTELLANA" (Project for the Extension of Calle de Alcalá) and the "PROYECTO DE ACCESOS A LA NUEVA PLAZA DE TOROS" (Project for Accesses to the New Bullring). The map also depicts the "CER" (Centro de Estudios y Recursos) and the "ABROÑIGAL" area. The bottom right corner includes a scale bar labeled "ESCALA GRAFICA" and a north arrow. The map is a valuable historical document, providing a comprehensive view of Madrid's urban planning and development during that period.
