

Biblioteca Regional de Madrid

H.

18710

no. 4. Views of the terrible acts of sacrilege and vandalism committed by the cowardly running reds, taking refuge in Madrid, with the victorious Nationalist army in hot pursuit. In some cases the eyes of the madonnas and saints, have been wrenched from the faces, owing to their jewelled workmanship.

23 NOV 1936

Console