

Biblioteca Regional de Madrid

BRITISH RESIDENTS IN MADRID. SCENES AT BRITISH EMBASSY.

CH/WA

Mr. G.O.D. Ogilvie Forbes, the British Charge d'affairs in Madrid is doing everything possible for the safety of the 200 British residents still in Madrid. Many of them are living at the British Embassy - some of them camping in the garden. In the event of a seige he can feed and house all of them for a period of ten days. About 50 of them are at the Embassy and others are arriving dally.

Photo shows- British refugees arriving at the British Embassy at Madrid with their luggage. Note the Militia guard.
Fox Sept 8th. 36

5 LINES

LP 268

